Bible Book a Month Series

THE NEED

In the Book "Boiling Point" by George Barna we are told where we are headed (pages 201-202)

"Bible knowledge will continue to decline. Unless a cataclysmic event occurs to drive people back to a genuine acceptance of Bible-based truth, our casual commitment to God's way will become even more casual and self-directed".

"Pragmatic Christian principles will be reduced to sound bites. Consequently these pithy euphemisms will lose even more of their life-transforming power through such trivialization. In some cases, after several iterations of dumbing down God's words, the very essence of the message may be distorted (For example, in Matthew 6:24-35, Jesus taught His disciples not to worry about things they could not control and that are already managed by God, but to focus on what is important - Kingdom priorities. Such a teaching is likely to evolve into the 'Don't worry, be happy' catch phrase)".

"In short look for spiritual anarchy to accelerate. The environment is conducive to such growth".

This proves that there is a great need for a sound understanding of the Bible. The Bible is the Word of God, and more books have been written about the Bible than on any other subject. Still, much of the modern material that is about the Bible is critical, skeptical, and heretical -- viewpoints that diminish the character of God and the absolute authority of His Word.

THE SOLUTION

At Songtime, we realize that an improper or inadequate knowledge of the Bible deprives the believer of great encouragement, strength for living, and the witness that results from a proper understanding of the revelation of Him in the scripture. This is why Songtime is making available one book of the Bible every month on cassette taught by two different teachers monthly. Outlines will also be provided. The cassettes feature Thirty Three of the greatest teachers of the past, including:

Gleason Archer, Carl Armerding, Charles W. Anderson, Donald Grey Barnhouse, F. Carlton Booth, S. Maxwell Coder, V. Raymond Edman, E. Schuyler English, Howard W. Ferrin, Daniel P. Fuller, Frank E. Gaerberlein, Billy Graham, Everett Harrison, Bob Jones Jr., Harold Kuhn, William Sanford LaSor, T. Leonard Lewis, Harold Linsell, L.E. Maxwell, Chester McCalley, J. Vernon McGee, Harold Ockenga, Stephen W. Paine, Arnold C. Schulltz, Wilbur Smith, Merrill Tenney, Arthur Whiting, Walter Wilson, John Walvoord, Charles Woodbridge, William Hazer Wrighton.

The Songtime Bible Book a Month series is for the person who wants to know more. It is not an end in itself, but any person will have a better understanding of the Bible from this study. These studies are to supplement the work of the local church, providing sound, solid teaching from some of the best bible teachers the Lord has provided.

WHAT IS AVAILABLE

Starting in October 2001 with Genesis, Songtime will make available 1 book of the Bible every month on cassette, taught by 2 different teachers. Additionally, notes and outlines are provided as well as examinations for those who are interested in evaluating their grasp of the subject material. Subscribers will receive one pack a month that will include the cassette teaching, and a copy of notes and outlines.

Additionally, some audio material will be available on the songtime website, www.songtime.com

A Personal Note:

I attended Word of Life when I was in my twenties and along with 500 teenagers sat under Dr. Charles Woodbridge as he taught Revelation. The Songtime Series includes those Studies. The average evangelical depends only on Sunday morning for their main Biblical encounter. That is as ineffective as depending upon one dinner to last for a week. Sign up now and discover Psalm 119:165!
